

Mills County Recreation Areas & Museums:

Fisher Wildlife Area, 20 acres, with nature viewing, fishing, hiking & picnicking.

Glenwood Archeological State Preserve, 907 acres, nature viewing & hiking.

Indian Creek Greenbelt, 12 acres of nature viewing.

Indian Creek Museum, 59256 280th St., Hastings, Iowa.

Kenny's Woods, 16 acres of timber & nature viewing.

Lake George, 9 acres, bird watching & picnicking.

Mills County Historical Museum, 20 Lake Drive, Glenwood Lake Park, Glenwood, Iowa.

Mile Hill Lake/Scenic Overlook, 39 acres, 10 acre lake, fishing, kayaking, canoeing, nature viewing, & picnicking

Pony Creek, 53 acres, camping, electricity, drinking water, boating, hiking & picnicking.

Ray Thomas Wildlife Refuge, 90 acres of forest & prairie with wildlife viewing.

Wabash Trace Nature Trail, 25 miles in Mills County with biking, hiking & nature viewing.

West Oak Forest, 308 acres in the Loess Hills, with native prairie, wildlife viewing & hiking.

Mills County is located in scenic Southwest Iowa tucked along the Missouri River valley in the beautiful in the Loess Hills. Our parks & recreation areas are ideal for camping, fishing, kayaking, canoeing, hiking, biking, nature viewing & picnicking.

Mills County Iowa

www.Glenwoodia.com

GLENWOOD IOWA
AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

DISCOVER

